Self-knowledge is an inner experiential understanding of ourselves as human beings rather than an analytical or intellectual understanding: Self-knowledge has from the beginning of time been fundamental in many doctrines and many schools.

SELF-KNOWLEDGE AND UNDERSTANDING

The first step to self-knowledge is to know that thou art composed of an outward shape, called the body, and an inward entity called the heart, or soul. By "heart" I do not mean the piece of flesh situated in the left of our bodies, but that which uses all the other faculties as its instruments and servants.
