ZERO by Tom Leveen also touches on a little bit of LGBTQ issues in the form of Amanda's best friend. Initially, I thought Amanda was homophobic, but after I kept on reading I thought her reaction to be quite normal. It doesn't matter if Jenn is straight or gay.

Zero by Tom Leveen: Book Review > Muggle-Born

Unconventional compared to a lot of YA, Zero is stunning in it's scope. Taking a main character who has plenty of confidence and body image issues, and who is far from the usual outgoing, girly girl kind of character, Leveen has crafted a book that will speak to many readers without them really even realizing it.
